Introduction

I dedicate this book to our loving Creator who inspired me to write it. For it is his good pleasure to share this information with whoever reads it. For it is divine knowledge that cannot be taught by man. It is by his grace, his mercy and his love that he does this. The words came from him through many hours of spiritual cleansing, discernment, prayer and sitting quietly with him. To him be all the praise, the honour and the glory. Amen

In the beginning

The earthly realm, my son, is one of divine instruction, I brought it into existence with the Word of my mouth. A plan of complex unity and diverse arrangement of gases, chemicals and solid matter that did not exist. I brought these into existence as I spoke my Word. The earth was formed and darkness fell over the face of the deep. The deep is not known by mankind, nor has he envisioned it. For it has been hidden.

My Creation is one of the mysteries that surrounds much debate. No human has been given this knowledge, nor will they. For my Word is eternal, it shall never pass away. It has brought all flesh into existence. It shall bring all flesh to its end. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my Word will exist forever. My Word is active, it never ceases, it accomplishes my will and my purpose. It cuts, it divides, it separates, it cleanses, it manifests. It brings life, it brings hope, it brings peace. It brings Me. For I am the Word, it is with Me, it is Me.

The Word is living, it is active, it is alive and breathing through all Creation. It reveals instincts and instructions to all living things. My animals are guided by my Word. They travel long distances to be where they need to be. My plants, my trees grow by my Word. They flower and bloom at precise intervals. Marrying in with weather and seasonal conditions, cold and hot, wet and dry. My living creatures build complex structures by my Word. They have no engineering qualifications, yet mankind copies their designs. My birds fly and navigate their way from continent to continent, guided by my Word. They need their Creator, to allow them to do this. For without Me they would be lost.

All Creation bears witness of Me. Nothing on earth can exist without Me. I am what I am. I am your next breath. I am the air, I am the water, I am in the rocks, I am in the stones. Does not my Word say that even the rocks cry out to Me.

The Word becomes flesh

My kingdom falls to the hand of satan, who deceives my man, my woman. Man starts living under the curse of sin and death. Sin enters the world and becomes a stronghold over all mankind. My son is sent into the world to redeem it from this curse.

The virgin gives birth, and the Word becomes flesh. The Word guides my son and leads him to all holiness. He fulfills my purpose and my will. He becomes the ultimate sacrifice for all mankind. By his blood every man and woman may be set free, sanctified and made holy. They are in right standing before my throne. The curse of sin and death are broken. Every man, every woman are given a choice. The choice to choose what my son has done for them. To accept the gift of eternal life through him. This choice does not come easy to most people. Many reject him, many curse him. They mock and ridicule him. They deny his power and his might. They deny the authority that I have given him.

For all Creation belongs to him. It is groaning for his return. He has power and authority over the heavens and the earth. By his word all creation would cease to exist. Life and death are in the power of his tongue.

He alone will destroy all flesh. He will judge the living and the dead. He will separate them to his left and to his right. They will know what it is like to stand before him. They will tremble at his sight. Many will beg him for mercy, none will be given. He will say to them "I never knew you, depart from Me you workers of iniquity."

Empowerment of the Word

To all the living creatures who walk upon my earth, I say this. Walk according to my Word. Live according to my Word, for it is life. For man cannot live on bread alone. But by every Word that proceeds from the mouth of God. The Word brings power, revelation, wisdom and glory from my throne room. It comes to reveal, to destroy, to break apart all wickedness and oppression from the evil one. It tears down strongholds and authorities from powers, principalities and rulers of this dark age. The Word brings guidance, instruction, intuition and clarity. It delivers, it conquers, it pierces the hardest human heart. It provokes, it convicts, it brings judgement upon all who are walking in wickedness. The word is delivered from my throne room, through my Spirit. Through my angelic beings, the hosts of heaven. They are your Lords that reside with you. They teach you spiritual things, heavenly things, the deep things of God. They lead you to where I want you to be. At the precise time and place that I desire. This is walking in the spirit that is described in my Word. This is precious in my sight.

For many of my servants are walking in the flesh, wasting many hours talking to people that I am not drawing at that time. For there are many crying out to Me, asking Me to send them someone to bring them hope, encouragement, truth and love. How can I send them if they do not take the time to listen to my instruction. How can I use you if you are not listening to my Holy Spirit.

My son walked where I told him to walk. He said what I told him to say, he did nothing of his own. Why does man think he can walk without Me and do as he pleases. Many of my servants have put themselves in danger, from this very reason. Some have died and been killed for their faith. I would have not led them to do this, it is not of Me.

My angels are to protect them and watch over their every move. My servants must listen to them, and follow their instructions. Only then will they be fully protected.

My son was protected many times, he slipped through the crowds. He was forbidden to enter certain cities. He was to told to wait. He was led around and through all danger.

The soul and the spirit

The soul and the spirit are not understood by mankind. He has no idea how they interact. How they conflict, how they oppose each other. The soul is the conscious “YOU” as you know it. The spirit is the essence of who you truly are. It came from Me, it knows Me, it longs to return to Me. It intercedes on your behalf, it grieves for the vessel it is inhabiting.

The soul knows the truth, it knows who its Creator is. It is like a caged bird living in your vessel. It longs to be free, it longs to be loved. It longs to be with Me.

When you are sad, when you are grieved, your soul is troubled. It is not at rest. For it is your will, your emotions, and your conscience. When you are happy, when you are at peace. Your soul is at rest.

The will and the mind

The human will is the downfall for many people. It was the human will that brought my Creation under its current curse. It was the human will that opposed my commandments. The man, the woman were told not to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. They chose to disobey Me and paid the ultimate price. Death came upon them. They brought curses to the land, to the soil. For out of it, thorns grew. The earth became a living curse to all mankind. From generation to generation, from age to age.

The will and the mind are also in constant conflict, they war against one another. The mind is under constant attack from the evil one. He brings negative thoughts and ideas that are opposed to all my ways and commandments. He brings in sadness, grief, anger, hatred, gossip, slander, greed.

You must capture these thoughts and cast them out immediately. Do not connect with them, do not act upon them. Resist all temptation. This is the renewing of the mind that is spoken in my Word. The human will must be brought into control, into alignment with my Word, my will and my instruction. This is precious in my sight, walking in the spirit.

My Word has been corrupted

My holy Word that I have brought forth has been corrupted in every way. Since my church first began it has been the centre of much debate. For man tries to interpret it without Me. He cannot. That is how I wrote it. It must be brought before Me.

It has been translated, edited, misinterpreted, misunderstood, removed, added to. It has been manipulated and taught out of context. It has been preached by men who do not know Me. Men who proclaim to be my servants, my ambassadors, yet they are not. For they are self proclaimed and self ordained. My spirit is not with them. They are full of darkness, proclaiming the words of every foul spirit, doctrines of demons. They shall be held accountable by Me, they shall be cast into utter darkness. Woe to you shepherds who have not fed my lambs, who have not led my sheep to greener pastures. You have misled them by your false teachings, your false doctrines. Woe to you who have placed stumbling blocks before them. Not allowing them to enter in through the narrow gate. You yourself will not enter in.

Woe to you false prophets, you wolves in sheeps clothing. You prowl around like roaring lions, devouring and taunting my people. You shall be silenced and removed from your positions. No longer will your welcoming words be heard within my walls. Your encouraging words tickling the ears of all who come before you.

Refusing to bring words of conviction and judgement by Me. For you want to be popular, accepted, welcomed. Not causing division or upsetting the assembly in any way. Is this of Me? Did Paul cause division? Did he go his own way? Did he not convict and bring forth judgement? Ananias and his wife were brought before the apostles. My judgement fell upon them and they were carried to their graves.

My word never changes, for I am the same yesterday, today and forever. As it was in the beginning so it shall be in the end. My word is holy, it is pure, it is undefiled.

Conclusion

The words my son are precious to Me, and to all who read them. They shall free many who read these books. Not all will be able to purchase them. The price of my love is free to all mankind I have done everything for mankind to find his way back to Me. For does not my word say "if you seek Me with your whole heart you will find Me" I want these books to be translated into the following languages.

english, spanish, greek, german, french, italian, hebrew
